Introducing Our Speaker, Mayor Walter Maddox

Walter Maddox was sworn in for his second term as Tuscaloosa's 36th Mayor on November 2, 2009. Since his first inauguration in 2005, Mayor Maddox has led initiatives to increase economic development, improve customer service and provide quality pre-k education for academically at-risk children.

Mayor Maddox is a Tuscaloosa native and graduated from Central High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in political science and master's degree in public administration from UAB. While attending UAB, Mayor Maddox was a four-year letter-winner on the football team.

The majority of Mayor Maddox's professional career has been spent in public education. From 1996 – 2001, he served as an Alabama Education Association Field Director. In 2001, he was appointed Executive Director of Personnel for the Tuscaloosa City Schools. In that same year, he was elected as Tuscaloosa City Councilman for the Sixth District.

Mayor Maddox is married to Stephanie Roberts Maddox. He has two children: Trey (21) and Taylor (9) and his favorite hobby is running. Mayor Maddox has completed several marathons and half-marathons.
